

the

Ee Da How Long Rifles

"CABIN FEVER SHOOT"

Black Powder Cartridge Rifle Silhouette

February 25 & 26, 2012

Black's Creek Rifle Range, Boise Idaho

The Ee Da How Long Rifles will be hosting the 2012 "Cabin Fever Shoot" for Black Powder Cartridge Rifle Silhouette. Don't let the winter weather drive you into "Cabin Fever"! We will shoot this match regardless of the weather; rain, snow, or 40 below! The only weather criteria will be visibility; we gotta be able to see the targets to shoot them! Target setters will be provided.

Schedule of Events:

Saturday Feb 25

Match 1 -40 shot match -Competitor's meeting at 9:00 a.m. with match to begin-immediately afterwards.

Sunday Feb 26

Match 2 -40 shot match- Competitor's meeting at 9:00 a.m. with match to begin immediately afterwards.

Entries and Fees:

The entry fee for the Cabin Fever Match is $55 and an optional blanket prize valued at $10 or more. Entry fee includes awards, NRA match fees and Black's Creek Range fees. Junior shooters: $35. A 2012 NRA Silhouette classification book is required.

The course of fire will be the standard BPCR silhouette format

- 10 Chickens from the offhand position. 200m
- 10 Pigs any position with cross-sticks 300m
- 10 Turkeys any position with cross-sticks 385m
- 10 Rams any position with cross-sticks 500m

The Cabin Fever match will be conducted IAW NRA BPCR Silhouette approved match rules.

Early entry or attendance notification is encouraged to accommodate squading.